the lands of North A-me-rica offer Thee all the saints who have shone in them.

By their sup-pli-ca-tions pre-serve the Church and our land in last-ing peace,

Detailed description: The image shows a musical score for a troparion. It consists of five systems of music. Each system has two staves: a soprano staff (S) and an alto staff (A). The music is written in a Kievan Chant style, using a simplified notation where notes are represented by stems and dots. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the staves. The first system starts with 'As the boun-ti-ful har-vest of the sal-vi-fic sow-ing, O Lord,'. The second system continues with 'the lands of North A-me-rica offer Thee all the saints who have shone in them.' The third system continues with 'By their sup-pli-ca-tions pre-serve the Church and our land in last-ing peace,'. The fourth system continues with 'through the in-ter-ces-sions of the The-o-to-kos, O great-ly'. The fifth system ends with 'mer-ci-ful One.' and a double bar line.
