Thou wast con-ver - sant with the fier-y and divinely wrought love of God, O thrice-bless - ed Mo - ses, be-holding Him face to face, one up-on the oth - er. And, gaz - ing upon thine own Cre - a - tor, thou didst manifestly behold His back parts in His splen - dor, learn - ing through a cre - vice in the rock of the future divine manifestation of the Word in the flesh. Where-fore like the all-won-drous pil - lar which all-gloriously went before the divinely wise peo - ple thou goest before and savest those who praise thee with faith.
