O venerable fa - ther, who can recount thy la - bors and pangs? What tongue can describe thy strict life, thy keeping of vigils and sub-sistence on food un - cooked, thy ly - ing on the ground, thy pu - ri - ty of bo - dy and soul, thy per - fect si-lence of mouth and - mind, thine un-feigned hu - mi - li - ty, thy con - stant prayers and right prudent dis - cern - ment, the raggedness of thy raiment, and the re - mem - brance of death?__

O Ser - gi - us our fa ther, pray thou that our souls be saved.
