11/10 Erastus, Olympus, Rodion
and others of the 70 Apostles

On “Lord, I have cried” in the 1st tone

3 O_ ye sac*red* preach_ers / who like wing*ed* eag_les / most splendidly traversed the fullness of the world: / them that were pursued by the e-vil*-do_er / ye_ did lead to the *invi-o-late Faith. // Wherefore, pray ye that our souls be given peace and great mer_cy.

2 With sa_cred voices let us ho_nor / Tertius and Sosipater, Olympus and Ro-di-on, / and with them Erastus, the initiate of the mys-te-ries, / and the divine_ Quar_tus, / who glo_ri-fy Christ our God // and beseech Him to grant our souls great mer_cy.

1 Ye_ have led the gen_tiles / unto Christ God, O bless-ed ones / de-li-vered by the blood of Him / who was well pleased to be born on earth / and who will_ingly endured the Cross and death, / O most wise_ ones. / Him do ye now entreat, // that He grant our souls peace and great mer_cy.

11/10 Erastus, Olympus, Rodion
and others of the 70 Apostles

Troparion in the 3rd tone

O Ho-ly A*-pos_tles, / entreat the mer-ci-ful God / that *He*_ grant_ un-to our souls // re-mis-sion of trans-gres_._._._._._sions.

11/10 Erastus, Olympus, Rodion
and others of the 70 Apostles

Kontakion in the 2nd tone

Having il-lu-mined your minds with di-vine_ light, / ye did wisely destroy the wiles of the o-ra-tors; / and hav*ing* fished for all the pa_gans, / O glorious a-pos-tles, / ye brought them to the Mas_ter, // teaching them to glorify the Di-vine _._Tri-ni-ty.